In the past we changed CCNA courses on the Anchorage campus to full semester so students would take one per semester instead of doing two of them back to back in one semester, in part to see if this would help with retention results from one class to the next. So far there has not been noticeable change in retention.

Student success depends on many aspects of a student's experience. On the academic program level, it can relate to correct placement, course sequencing, standardized pre-requisites across sets of courses, the intentional use of high-impact practices, proactive advising, course scheduling practice5.49m0 g0 u03>45@04gac47 rev
